

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION REPORT

Name of the Institution: Loyola College of Education, Chennai – 34

Academic Year : 2025–2026

Introduction

The Alumni Association of Loyola College of Education plays a vital role in fostering a lifelong connection between the institution and its graduates. It serves as a platform to strengthen bonds, share experiences, and contribute to the growth and development of the institution.

Objectives of the Alumni Association

- To promote a strong network among alumni members
- To encourage interaction between alumni and current students
- To provide career guidance and mentorship to prospective teachers
- To support institutional development through alumni contributions
- To organize academic, professional, and social activities

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION ACTIVITY REPORT

Details of the Activity

Name of the Activity: Sharing Love Towards Others

Date: 11.12.2025

Time: 10.30 AM – 11.50 AM

Target Audience: St. Joseph High School Children (IX & X Students)

Number of Participants: Students of IX & X Standard

Objectives of the Activity

- To inculcate the value of sharing love among students
- To encourage the habit of helping the needy
- To promote the spirit of giving during festive occasions

Description of the Activity

The Alumni Association of Loyola College of Education organized a meaningful outreach programme titled “Sharing Love Towards Others” on 11th December 2025 at St. Joseph High School.

During the visit, stationery items were distributed to the students of IX and X standard. The programme aimed at spreading joy and extending support to the needy children, especially in the spirit of the Christmas season.

The visit was graced by Rev. Fr. Alphonse Manikkam (Secretary), Dr. C. Beulah Jayarani, Dr. Amala Jansi, Dr. Elin Shibi, along with student council members. The student council members actively participated by personally handing over the stationery items to the school children, thereby experiencing the joy of giving.

The team was warmly received by Sister Principal Princely, who expressed her heartfelt appreciation for the thoughtful initiative. The interaction with the children was filled with happiness and gratitude, making the occasion truly memorable.

Learning Outcomes

- Students understood that Christmas is a season of love and sharing
- They realized the importance of remembering the needy and helpless during celebrations
- Developed empathy, kindness, and social responsibility

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION ACTIVITY REPORT – II

Details of the Activity

Name of the Activity: Sharing Love towards others

Date: 12.12.2025

Time: 3.30 PM – 4.50 PM

Target Audience: Ms. Julius – Children Home for Irulas, Acharapakkam, Chengalpattu District

Number of Participants: 60 Students

Objectives of the Activity

- To promote the value of love and compassion among students
- To encourage sharing with the underprivileged
- To instill the spirit of charity during the Christmas season

Description of the Activity

The Alumni Association of Loyola College of Education organized a service-oriented outreach programme titled “Sharing Love Towards Others” on 12th December 2025 at a Children’s Home for Irulas in Acharapakkam, Chengalpattu District, maintained by Ms. Julius.

As part of the initiative, essential items including stationery, groceries, rice, dresses, toiletries, and biscuits were generously distributed to the children of the home. The programme aimed at extending support and spreading joy among the underprivileged community during the festive season.

Dr. Kulandai Theresal (Principal) and Dr. C. Beulah Jayarani (Vice-Principal), along with faculty members and students, actively participated in the distribution of the items to Ms. Julius. The collective effort reflected a strong commitment to social responsibility and compassion.

The interaction with the children and caretakers created a warm and meaningful atmosphere, making the occasion truly memorable for all participants.

Learning Outcomes

- Students realized that Christmas symbolizes love, sharing, and compassion
- They understood the importance of remembering the needy and helpless during celebrations
- Developed a sense of empathy, social responsibility, and service-mindedness

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION ACTIVITY REPORT – III

Details of the Activity

Name of the Activity: Sharing Love towards Special Children

Date: 15.12.2025

Time: 1.10 PM – 3.45 PM

Target Audience: Mithra Special School Children & Elderly Persons

Number of Beneficiaries: 121 Special Children

Objectives of the Activity

- To express love, care, and compassion towards special children and the elderly
- To encourage students to engage in acts of kindness and sharing
- To promote inclusivity and social responsibility during the festive season

Description of the Activity

The Alumni Association of Loyola College of Education organized a heartfelt outreach programme titled “Sharing Love Towards Special Children” on 15th December 2025 at Mithra Special School.

As part of the initiative, essential items such as stationery, groceries, rice, dresses, and toiletries were distributed to the children. In addition, cakes and biscuits were shared with all the students and staff, creating a joyful and festive atmosphere.

Dr. C. Beulah Jayarani (Vice-Principal), Dr. Jasmine Christy, Dr. E. Karthekeyan, along with student council members, accompanied the students for this noble cause. The team was warmly welcomed by the Sister Secretary, who expressed her happiness and gratitude for the thoughtful gesture.

The interaction with the special children and elderly persons was deeply moving and memorable. The programme emphasized emotional connection, empathy, and the joy of giving, making it a truly enriching experience for everyone involved.

Learning Outcomes

- Developed a sense of love, care, and empathy towards special children
- Understood the importance of sharing and inclusivity
- Cultivated social responsibility and compassion

Overall Impact of the Activity

- Reinforced that Christmas is a season of love and sharing
- Highlighted the importance of remembering the needy and helpless during celebrations
- Strengthened values of kindness, humanity, and service

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION ACTIVITY REPORT – IV

Details of the Activity

Name of the Activity: Sharing Love towards Others

Date: 16.12.2025

Time: 1.00 PM – 3.25 PM

Target Audience: Home for Little Sisters (Old Age Home), Chetpet

Number of Beneficiaries: Aged People

Objectives of the Activity

- To promote love, care, and compassion towards the elderly
- To encourage the spirit of sharing and service among students
- To extend support to the needy during the festive season

Description of the Activity

The Alumni Association of Loyola College of Education organized a compassionate outreach programme titled “Sharing Love towards Others” on 16th December 2025 at the Home for Little Sisters (Old Age Home), Chetpet.

During the visit, essential items such as groceries, rice, dresses, and toiletries were distributed to the elderly residents. Cakes and biscuits were also shared with the inmates and staff, bringing joy and festive cheer to the occasion.

Dr. C. Beulah Jayarani (Vice-Principal), Dr. Jasmine Christy, Dr. Antony Joseph, along with student council members, accompanied the students for this service initiative. The team was warmly welcomed by the Sister Secretary, who expressed heartfelt gratitude for the thoughtful gesture and support.

The interaction with the elderly residents was deeply touching and meaningful. The programme created a sense of belonging and happiness among the beneficiaries, making it an unforgettable experience for all participants.

Learning Outcomes

- Students understood that Christmas is a season of love and sharing
- Recognized the importance of caring for the elderly and the needy
- Developed empathy, compassion, and a sense of social responsibility

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION ACTIVITY REPORT – V

Details of the Activity

Name of the Activity: Sharing Love Towards Others

Date: 17.12.2025

Time: 10.00 AM – 11.45 AM

Target Audience: JMS Shelter Home, T. Nagar (Men)

Number of Beneficiaries: 25 Men

Objectives of the Activity

- To promote love, care, and compassion towards the underprivileged
- To encourage the spirit of sharing among students
- To extend support to the needy during the festive season

Description of the Activity

The Alumni Association of Loyola College of Education organized a meaningful outreach programme titled “Sharing Love towards Others” on 17th December 2025 at JMS Shelter Home, T. Nagar.

During the visit, essential items such as groceries, rice, dresses, and toiletries were distributed to the residents of the shelter home. Biscuits were also distributed to all the beneficiaries, spreading joy and warmth among them.

The programme was graced by Rev. Fr. Alphonse Manickam (Secretary), Dr. C. Beulah Jayarani, and Dr. E. Karthikeyan (Assistant Professor), along with student council members. The students actively participated in distributing the items, thereby experiencing the value of sharing and service.

The team was warmly welcomed by Rev. Fr. Packiaraj, SJ, who expressed his sincere appreciation for the thoughtful initiative. The interaction with the residents was heart-touching and left a lasting impression on all participants.

Learning Outcomes

- Students understood that Christmas is a season of love and sharing
- Recognized the importance of remembering the needy and helpless during celebrations
- Developed empathy, compassion, and a sense of social responsibility

Additional Impact

- Strengthened humanitarian values among students
- Encouraged active involvement in community service
- Fostered a spirit of generosity and kindness

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION ACTIVITY REPORT – VI

Details of the Activity

Name of the Activity: Sharing Love Towards Special Students

Date: 18.12.2025

Time: 9.30 AM – 11.00 AM

Target Audience: Little Flower Visually Challenged & Deaf and Dumb High School Students

Number of Beneficiaries: Visually Challenged, Deaf and Dumb Students

Objectives of the Activity

- To express love, care, and compassion towards differently-abled students
- To encourage the spirit of sharing and inclusivity among students
- To extend support to the needy during the festive season

Description of the Activity

The Alumni Association of Loyola College of Education organized a compassionate outreach programme titled “Sharing Love towards Special Students” on 18th December 2025 at Little Flower Visually Challenged & Deaf and Dumb High School.

During the visit, essential items such as stationery, groceries, rice, and toiletries were distributed to the students. The programme aimed at bringing joy and support to the differently-abled children while promoting inclusivity and care.

Dr. C. Beulah Jayarani (Vice-Principal), Dr. Jasmine Christy, Dr. E. Karthikeyan, along with student council members, accompanied the students for this meaningful initiative. The team was warmly welcomed by the Sister Principal, who expressed heartfelt gratitude for the thoughtful gesture.

The interaction with the students was deeply touching and inspiring. The programme created a joyful atmosphere and left a lasting impact on both the beneficiaries and the participants.

Learning Outcomes

- Students understood that Christmas is a season of love and sharing
- Recognized the importance of caring for differently-abled individuals
- Developed empathy, inclusivity, and social responsibility

Additional Impact

- Reinforced the value of remembering the needy and helpless during celebrations
- Promoted inclusive and humanitarian values
- Encouraged active participation in community service

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION ACTIVITY REPORT – VII

Details of the Activity

Name of the Activity: Sharing Love Towards Others

Date: 19.12.2025

Time: 10.30 AM – 1.05 PM

Target Audience: St. Louis Visually Challenged & Deaf and Dumb High School Students

Number of Beneficiaries: Visually Challenged, Deaf and Dumb Students

Objectives of the Activity

- To promote love, care, and compassion towards differently-abled students
- To encourage the spirit of sharing and inclusivity
- To support the needy during the festive season

Description of the Activity

The Alumni Association of Loyola College of Education organized a service-oriented outreach programme titled “Sharing Love Towards Others” on 19th December 2025 at St. Louis Visually Challenged & Deaf and Dumb High School.

During the visit, essential items such as stationery, groceries, rice, and toiletries were distributed to the students. The initiative aimed at spreading joy and extending support to differently-abled children during the Christmas season.

Ms. R. Sridevi (Assistant Professor, Pedagogy of Mathematics) and Fr. Michael, along with student council members, accompanied the students for this meaningful activity. The students actively participated in distributing the items, thereby experiencing the joy of giving and sharing.

The team was warmly welcomed by the Brother Principal, who expressed heartfelt appreciation for the thoughtful gesture. The interaction with the students was inspiring and memorable, leaving a deep impact on all participants.

Learning Outcomes

- Students understood that Christmas is a season of love and sharing
- Recognized the importance of remembering the needy and helpless during celebrations
- Developed empathy, inclusivity, and social responsibility

Additional Impact

- Reinforced humanitarian and inclusive values
- Encouraged active participation in community service
- Promoted kindness and compassion among students

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION ACTIVITY REPORT – VIII

Details of the Activity

Name of the Activity: Sharing Love Towards Others

Date: 27.01.2026

Time: 3.30 PM – 5.35 PM

Target Audience: Street Dwellers

Number of Beneficiaries: 24 Street Dwellers

Objectives of the Activity

- To promote love, care, and compassion towards the underprivileged
- To encourage the spirit of sharing among students
- To provide basic necessities to the needy

Description of the Activity

The Alumni Association of Loyola College of Education organized a compassionate outreach programme titled “Sharing Love Towards Others” on 27th January 2026 for street dwellers.

During the visit, blankets and bed sheets were distributed to 24 street dwellers to support them, especially in meeting their basic needs. The initiative aimed at extending warmth, care, and dignity to those living in vulnerable conditions.

Fr. Michael, along with students and student council members, actively participated in the programme. The students were encouraged to personally distribute the items, enabling them to experience the true spirit of giving and service.

The interaction with the street dwellers was deeply moving and meaningful. The activity created a sense of empathy and responsibility among the participants, making it an unforgettable experience.

Learning Outcomes

- Students understood that true celebration lies in sharing love and care
- Recognized the importance of remembering the needy and helpless
- Developed empathy, compassion, and social responsibility

Additional Impact

- Promoted humanitarian values and community service
- Encouraged active student participation in outreach activities
- Strengthened the value of kindness and generosity