REPORT: INTERNATIONAL DAY AGAINST DRUG ABUSE AND ILLICIT TRAFFICKING

DATE: 26TH JUNE 2025

COMMITTEE: ANTI DRUG COMMITTEE

Human chain on International day against drug abuse and illicit trafficking organized by Anti drug committee of, Loyola college of Education, Chennai. Convened on 26th June 2025 to spread awareness about the harmful effects of drug abuse

The program commenced with a warm welcome by Ms. N. Madhumitha, who greeted the esteemed gathering. Following this, our respected Principal Dr. L. Kulandai Thersal addressed the gathering, emphasizing the importance of the day and welcoming the police officials who extended their valuable support and guidance.

Subsequently, Mr. Joel Nehemiah delivered a brief yet impactful introduction about the significance of the International Day against Drug Abuse and Illicit Trafficking, highlighting the urgent need for collective action against drug abuse. Ms. Shalini. N then led the gathering in taking a pledge to stay away from drugs and to promote a healthy, drug-free society.

The session was further enriched by the inspiring words of Rev. Dr. Alphonse Manickam S.J, who provided important guidelines and insights on the ill effects of drugs and motivated everyone to be ambassadors of change.

Our Physical Director, Mr. Arul Martin, explained the procedure and safety measures for forming the human chain. The participants, including staff and students, then proceeded from Loyola College of Education to Pushpa Nagar Signal, Nungambakkam, forming a strong human chain while holding placards and posters with anti-drug slogans.

The event drew significant attention from the public, with many onlookers appreciating and encouraging the initiative. It was also covered and telecasted on Polimer News, further amplifying the message to a wider audience.

Participants stood united for one hour, showcasing solidarity against drug abuse. After the successful completion of the human chain, everyone returned to the college with a sense of pride and fulfillment, having contributed to spreading valuable awareness among the community.
