Bridging Borders: A Pedagogical Exchange with Assam Don Bosco University

Fostering a spirit of national academic integration, our college warmly hosted students from Assam Don Bosco University for an immersive educational visit. This cross-cultural dialogue allowed prospective educators from the North East to experience the unique institutional ethos and academic rigor of our B.Ed. program.

Purpose of the Visit

The primary intent of this visit was to provide a comprehensive walk through of our administrative framework, the structure of our teacher-education curriculum, and the innovative teaching-learning methodologies we employ to prepare future-ready educators.

Objectives of the Programme

- Administrative Insight: To demonstrate the organizational hierarchy and the role of the IQAC in maintaining institutional quality.
- Curriculum Mapping: To share how we integrate value education, peace education, and AI-driven pedagogy into the standard B.Ed. syllabus.
- Methodological Observation: To provide firsthand exposure to our student-centric classroom strategies and digital learning tools

Learning Outcomes

- Comparative Knowledge: Visitors gained a comparative understanding of administrative practices and curriculum implementation between Assam and Tamil Nadu.
- Pedagogical Innovation: Students identified new classroom management techniques and ICT-integrated teaching models to adapt in their own contexts.

- Professional Synergy: The interaction strengthened social intelligence and built a professional network between the two prestigious Jesuit-affiliated educational ecosystems.

Bridging the geographical expanse between Assam and Chennai, students from Assam Don Bosco University visited LCE for an immersive exchange of pedagogical ideas. The visit commenced with a warm welcome by Rev. Dr. Alphonse Manickam, SJ, Secretary, who introduced the rich heritage and visionary mission of Loyola College of Education. Following this, Dr. Zacharias Tirkey detailed the purpose of the visit, emphasizing the importance of understanding diverse administrative frameworks and innovative teaching-learning methodologies.

The structured schedule offered the visitors a comprehensive look at our institutional ecosystem:

- 10:00 a.m. – 11:00 a.m.: A guided Campus Tour, showcasing our digital infrastructure and specialized laboratories.
- 11:00 a.m.: A brief interlude for Refreshments, fostering informal networking.
- 11:15 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.: A detailed Technical Session led by Dr. L. Kulandai Theresal, Principal. She presented an in-depth overview of the college's organizational structure, its historical evolution, and the diverse academic programmes offered. The session sparked deep dialogues regarding curriculum design and effective classroom management, leaving the visiting students with a profound understanding of institutional excellence in teacher education.
