Name of the programme :	Independence day @, Loyola College of Education, Chennai
Date of the programme :	15-08-2026
Time of the programme :	7.30 AM
Objectives of the programme :	The Independence Day celebration aims to honor the sacrifices of freedom fighters, uphold patriotism, and create awareness about freedom, unity, and democracy. By involving the Student Council in flag hoisting, it fosters student leadership, responsibility, and national pride while inspiring the younger generation to contribute to the nation's progress.
Learning outcomes of programme:	• Patriotism and National Pride – Students developed a deeper sense of respect for the national flag and the sacrifices of freedom fighters. • Historical Awareness – The programme reinforced the importance of Independence Day and the values of freedom and democracy. • Unity and Integrity – By participating together, students experienced the spirit of national unity and collective identity. • Discipline and Responsibility – Involvement in the formal ceremony instilled discipline, responsibility, and respect for national symbols. • Leadership and Teamwork – Active participation by the student council in organizing and conducting the event enhanced leadership and collaborative skills.
Honour Report:	The Independence Day celebration was marked with pride and patriotism, beginning with the flag hoisting by the Student Council Member and the singing of the national anthem. The event highlighted student leadership, unity, and responsibility, while instilling a spirit of patriotism and respect for the nation. The active participation of faculty, staff, and students made the occasion meaningful and memorable.
